1 Review

1.1 Completed Stories

Three stories have been completed this week:

- The Admin can show the results of the question in a sensible format e.g. graph
- Users should not be able to submit their own answers by altering the HTML, as they did with Qwizom
- The Admin can see what percentage of users connected to the session have answered

1.2 Incomplete Stories

None incomplete

2 Retrospective

2.1 What went well

An XP approach really helped with the design stage of the results, as it changed a few times during this iteration. If this was being done in a more planned way, those changes might have been harder to implement.

2.2 What went badly
